lime now for the autumn revival of the Fearless Fotheringay Current Events Whiz Quiz. Entries are restricted one to a customer. Box tops or money would be helpful. Points will be awarded for neatness.

1. President Jimmy Carter has apologized on television for being "mean" to Ronnie Reagan in the campaign, Does this indicate that he is (a) naïve? (b) regretful? (c) qualified to be in the Liberal cabinet

2. Please explain why Iran and Iraq are fighting. Keep it down to 2,500 words.

3. Joe Clark says he is not worried about his leadership being challenged at the Conservative party's convention in Ottawa in February because, as he puts it, "my friends are going to show up. Does this mean the convention will be held (a) in the Chateau Laurier kitchen? (b) at a bus stop? (c) in a Volkswagen van

4. Write an essay on why you are now bored with Muhammad Ali and wish he would shut up for a year or two.

Keep it short. 5. Now that the time is supposedly approaching again when Pierre Trudeau is supposedly to retire again, John Turner has emerged again to be photographed shaking hands in public with Jean Chrétien, whom he once criticized in his underground newsletters. Does this indicate that John Turner is (a) naïve? (b) regretful? (c) mean enough to be in the Liberal cabinet?

6. René Lévesque, who wants to take Quebec out of Canada, says he is delaying the Quebec election until next spring only because he wants to cooperate with the other premiers in opposing Pierre Trudeau's constitutional plans. Please explain the logic of this statement.

7. Write an essay explaining why you feel sorry for the Toronto Argonauts. Shortest essay wins.

8. The United States, the most ener-Allan Fotheringham is a columnist for Southam News.

getic and imaginative nation in history. is seriously contemplating electing as president a man who would be 70 years of age within three weeks of inauguration. Pretend that you are writing to a minister of Canada. He has been the finance minister since February. Please recall one thing he has said.

10. If you were finance minister of Canada, would you say anything? 11. Does this indicate that Allan

MacEachan is (a) naïve? (b) regretful? (c) mean?

12. Norman Mailer, no stranger to the altar, has announced he is about to marry two women, one to legitimize a child he has fathered and then, after immediately divorcing her, marrying his current true love. Do you wish Norman Mailer would stick to writing? How does he have any energy to write? Keep it brief.

13. The Liberal party, which has all of two MPs in the four western provinces, contends that it must act unilaterally on the constitution because the premiers do not represent the people and only the federal government, being the Liberals, can do that. Please explain how this logic applies to Western Canada, Forward answers to Peter Lougheed.

14. Recall-truthfully-how many times the name Robert Stanfield has crossed your mind fondly in the past six months. Explain why you didn't vote for him. (Replies will be kept confidential.)

15. Explain how the Montreal Expos could have united Canada far better than Jean Chrétien. Forward vour entries to André Dawson (with a carbon for Mr. Chrétien).

What do you feel is responsible for the color of the hair of Ronnie Reagan? (a) clean living? (b) television? (c) ambition?

17. Eugene Whelan is mounting a careful drive for the leadership of the Liberal party which supposedly will be vacant one day. Contemplating this, recall-truthfully-how many times the name Robert Stanfield has crossed your mind fondly in the past six months.

18. The Union Nationale party, buoyed by private polls that show how popular he would be, is strenuously wooing Mayor Jean Drapeau to become their new leader. Do you feel this means the UN (a) needs a collapsible roof? (b) has no accountants? (c) cannot have a baby?

at the Democratic convention in New York to support Jimmy Carter in the presidential campaign. Does this mean Teddy is (a) naïve? (b) regretful? (c) seen enough to be in the Liberal cabinet? 20. Estimate where Marc Lalonde ranks on the charisma scale. Do not explain. 21. Do vou feel Pierre Trudeau's haste in patriating the constitution may have something to do with the fact he wishes to get the business over with before fellow Liberal Claude Ryan has a chance to gain power in Quebec? Would Trudeau rather deal with the mercurial Lévesque than the granitic Ryan? Explain why you're always so suspicious.

22. Bill Davis of Ontario, who showed his heartfelt support for Joe Clark during the last election campaign by spending most of it in Florida, has now urged all Tory MPs from Ontario to support the Liberal position on the constitution and desert Clark, Please compose an essay on Tory solidarity and political hypocrisy. Keep it clean. Mail to Mr. Davis.

19. Teddy Kennedy, as you'll remember, pledged
